Dave,

Thank you. Some initial thoughts are provided below, I'm also checking with David Brauner to see if he has any additional comments.

Pat;
Thanks for the comments on the ESI. I looked through and most seem to be easy fixes. I will discuss with my team and revise accordingly. Please take a look at these quick sketch figures to see if this is what you have in mind for figure 21 and others. We should also set up a time to conference call to address specific questions/clarifications.
